← THE NORTHERN MEN'S CONVENTION
encouraging men to live for Christ

'anyone... in every nation'
MISSION:IMPOSSIBLE?

"I now realise how true it is that God does not show favouritism but accepts men from every nation."

saturday 10th may 2008

the armitage centre, manchester

with Vaughan Roberts, Graham Beynon & Justin Mote

hi!

Not everything is straightforward for Christian men wanting to live and speak for Jesus today.

But there are some real encouragements, and for me the fact that hundreds of men from the North meet year by year to listen to the Word of God, worship and simply be together is a cause for rejoicing.

This time, we will be looking at the Book of Acts as we consider evangelism and mission. They are subjects not designed to send us on guilt trips, but to enthuse, equip and excite us as we are involved in serving according to God's agenda for the world.

May I wholeheartedly encourage you to be with us for the day, but better still, to bring a car, or even a coach full of men who will benefit from and contribute to the day? The mix of ministry, seminars, fellowship, worship, bargain books is designed to be of maximum benefit for men wanting to grow in their knowledge of the Lord and to serve Him well. The Convention is designed for men of all stages in spiritual maturity, from the youngest in his Christian faith to the most mature.

See you soon,

Roger Carswell

On behalf of the Northern Men's Convention Committee

main speakers

Vaughan Roberts is the Rector of St Ebbe's, Oxford and is keen on cricket, tennis and golf. He is Vice-Chairman of the Proclamation Trust and a founder member of '9:38', which encourages people to consider full-time ministry. He is the author of many books including 'Turning Points', 'True Worship', 'God's Big Picture', and most recently 'Battles Christians face'.

Graham Beynon is a minister at Avenue Community Church, a recent church plant in Leicester. He is involved with the training of others through his work with the Midlands Ministry Training Course and he is the author of two books 'God's new Community' and 'Experiencing the Spirit'. His interests include watching TV with his wife, playing with his kids, walking his dog, and playing football with friends.

Justin Mote is a Bible teacher who has been in pastoral ministry for over twenty years. He now leads the North West Ministry Training Courses in Leyland and he is also the Chairman of the Northern Men's Convention. He is married to Jo and they have three children. Justin enjoys watching cricket and would love to have the time to play more golf.
